

right to food poems

what's an acrostic poem?

an acrostic is a poem where the first letters of each line spell out a word or phrase.

where'd they come from?

the first record of an acrostic poem is from centuries ago, during ancient Greek times. One of the first we know about was written on leaves and then arranged to spell a word with the first letter on each leaf!

some tips for writing yours!

- write your chosen food vertically down the page
- brainstorm words or phrases that describe your food
- match your brainstormed words with lines that begin with the same letter

practice as a group with the word "apple":

all my friends can eat their favourite foods

P -

P -

L -

E -

now, write your own!

A large, empty rectangular box with a light green border, intended for writing. The box is centered on the page and occupies most of the lower half of the document.
