

Body Positivity Taskforce

Terms of Reference

Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Advise management on opportunities for organizational advocacy positions - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare can imbed body positivity in our work - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare can challenge fat shaming and body shaming in our work and beyond - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare can further embrace a body positivity framework - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare can influence the partners that we work with to further embrace a body positivity framework - Provide recommendations on criteria for when we do or do not work with funders who talk about obesity and health in their work - Develop a one-pager for new & existing staff to assist in maintaining a cultural shift at FoodShare focused on embracing body positivity - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare can use social media to promote body positivity messaging - Provide recommendations on how FoodShare’s food justice work can include a body positivity lens
Membership (minimum)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At least two members of management - At least two members of non-management staff
Chair	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Director of Programs
Frequency of Meetings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Meets as required – with a goal of meeting the objectives listed above
Quorum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 4 members
Decision Making	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Body Positivity Task Force will make recommendations to Management or the Executive Director (as directed)
Accountability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Accountable to: Executive Director (Meeting minutes must be taken and sent to the Executive Director)
Review of Terms of Reference and Membership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Date of last review: February 5, 2019